Time, it’s an amazing time.
Are you a Metal enthusiast? Then “Time”, the latest album by Infected Rain, is just what you’ve been waiting for. This Moldovan band presents us with a work loaded with Nu Metal, Metalcore, Groove Metal, Melodic Death Metal, and Progressive Metal, featuring mature and profound lyrics. Additionally, this release marks the debut of Alice Lane on bass, following the departure of Vladimir Babich and Sergey Babich from the band.

In “Time” we dive into a wide palette of sounds, where drums, guitar, and bass combine with the powerful voice of Lena Scissorhands to transport us between impressive gutturals and delicate melodies. This creates a dark, melancholic, and deeply emotional atmosphere, while electronic elements bring a captivating modernity to the album.

The album consists of 12 songs with a total duration of 54 minutes. It opens with ‘Because I Let You’, a song with deep lyrics and a video that reinforces the personal and emotional message of Lena Scissorhands. On the other hand, tracks like ‘The Answer Is You’ radiate energy and power, encouraging us not to give up. ‘Paura’ also stands out, a song with a more subdued tone, featuring an Italian introduction that gives it a unique serenity and, towards the end, shows us an explosion of sonic and vocal energy. In short, the album is a total enjoyment from start to finish.
In conclusion, “Time” is a meticulously crafted work that is enjoyed both alone and at a concert surrounded by friends. For all these reasons, this album is destined to become a benchmark in metal this year.
